We have added a great new book to our store. You can order online or at the Talbot Library and Museum in Colcord, OK!

American Indians of Oklahoma

Published in 2017 by the National Genealogical Society, as a part of their Research in the States Series, this booklet is a very informative research guide for anyone researching Indian tribes in Oklahoma. It contains a documented history of Indian Territory, and Oklahoma, Indian tribe removals, and basis for various Tribal Rolls and resources. Also includes where these resources are archived and available for research. Kathy Huber has been the genealogy librarian for the Tulsa City County Library for twenty-five years, where she manages the Genealogy Center, she teaches genealogy classes and is a noted speaker on genealogy research. We have added two new great books to our store. You can order online or at the Talbot Library and Museum in Colcord, OK!

Elias Boudinot - Cherokee & His America - By Ralph Henry Gabriel

This book was originally published in 1941 by University of Oklahoma Press. It is recently reprinted, and is the history and story of Elias Boudinot. He was a formative part of Cherokee history, educated by Moravian missionaries in Georgia, and at the Foreign Mission School in Cornwall, CT. Order here.

Oklahoma's Atticus: An Innocent Man And The Lawyer Who Fought For Him - by Hunter Howe Cates

This newly released hardback book is a fascinating telling of the true story of Buster Youngwolfe, a young Cherokee man arrested for the murder of an 11 year old girl in Tulsa, Oklahoma in 1953. Public Defender and Creek Indian, Elliott Howe, the author's grandfather, was appointed to represent the young man. Both men were born poor Native Americans. They faced the powerful county attorney's office, as well as the power of the media, and public opinion in this battle. It is both a true-crime mystery and a legal thriller. Order here.
